

Save the Date!

2008 Collegiate Environmental Sustainability Conference

Spelman College
Atlanta, Georgia

October 23-24, 2008

Who should attend:
college and university
representatives interested in learning about successful, sustainable projects and bringing those ideas back to their own campus.

Spelman's LEED-certified Residence Hall

Come learn the dollars and "sense" of Going Green. Hear about the benefits, success stories and resources available to Colleges and Universities.

Our environmental decisions now affect us economically later.

The window of opportunity is now. Going Green has never made more sense!
